

California Labor History and Resistance in the Time of Trump

Presentation and dialogue with

Fred Glass

Fri. Dec. 8, 6:00 - 7:30 PM

5:30 doors open • refreshments, coffee and tea served

OPERATING ENGINEERS BUILDING

6225 State Farm Drive, Rohnert Park

FREE and open to the public

Cosponsored by: North Bay Jobs with Justice, North Bay Labor Council, and City College of San Francisco Labor and Community Studies Department.

Fred Glass is the former Communications Director for the California Federation of Teachers and author of the new book From Mission to Microchip: A History of the California Labor Movement (University of California Press, 2016). He is the producer for the ten-part documentary video series on the history of the California labor movement, Golden Lands, Working Hands (1999), aired on most PBS stations in California. He is also instructor of Labor and Community Studies at City College of San Francisco.

Copies of Fred Glass' book available for purchase at the event.

For more information contact: northbayjwj@gmail.com • 707-293-2863

NorthBayJobsWithJustice.org • facebook.com/pages/North-Bay-Jobs-With-Justice